Letter from the High Chief Ranger

Dear Fellow Foresters,

The solemnity of the Lenten Season bringing the joy of Easter mirrors, to me, the cycle of life. As we anticipate a shower of colorful blossoms bursting from a bleak wintery blur of sepia tones, we look forward to an exciting new season.

By the time you receive this edition of the Chips, we will have enjoyed our Annual Memorial Mass at St. Athanasius Church, Reading followed by a delicious Brunch at The Clarion Inn, Wakefield MA. Highlighted for this occasion, Dr. Barbara Deveney Redmond, guest speaker, presented a most interesting talk "The Year of Faith: Fifty Years since Vatican II. How has it impacted our lives?" I salute High Outside Sentinel, William F. Redmond and members of the Cardinal Cushing Court #326 for assembling such a memorable event.

Grant and Scholarship applications should have been received and reviewed by the Scholarship Committee at our Joint Board Meeting, held May 4, at Headquarters. Congratulations and continued success to all winners.

This meeting of the Joint Boards also finalized plans for the 133rd Annual Convention. Held from June 28, 29 and 30th at the Red Jacket Beach Resort, So. Yarmouth. We continue to welcome nominations for open Board Positions and Delegates at Large. Please plan on attending the Convention and submitting your room reservation requests to Headquarters as soon as possible. The Sunday Mass, on June 30, will be said for all living and deceased members of the Foresters, and especially the Military. If you have a particular person to include, please let the office know his or her name, as well.

With thoughtful pause, I also reflect on a very interesting, active and wonderful term as High Chief Ranger. To the many members who have provided valuable assistance and advice throughout this year, I offer my deepest thanks.

As I conclude my year I also reflect on the seasons God has given us, the gifts within each one, and the opportunities that arise with each new day. May God continue to bless each of you.

Sincerely,

Kathleen M. Hourihan
High Chief Ranger

133rd Annual Convention and Banquet Red Jacket Beach Resort

As the song made famous by Patti Page says, "If you're fond of sand dunes and salty air, quaint villages here and there"... the Red Jacket Beach Resort, 1 South Shore Drive, S. Yarmouth, Massachusetts is the place to be on June 28th, 29th and 30th, 2013.

High Chief Ranger Kathleen M. Hourihan and her Convention Committees are planning a most informative and interesting meeting for all delegates and guests attending the Annual Convention and Banquet.

The business matters of The Society will take precedence. However, "if you like the taste of lobster stew, served by a window with an ocean view", our Friday evening activities, including our Annual Bingo Game and dancing to the wee hours, will certainly satisfy your desires.

"If you spend an evening, you'll want to stay, watching the moonlight on Cape Cod Bay" is appropriate for our Saturday evening Banquet activities, which include our Guest Speaker Joanne Riley, University Archivist, Joseph P. Healy Library - UMASS Boston and our College Scholarship/Educational Grant presentation by Scholarship Committee Chairperson, HVCR Sue Callahan, along with our Forester of the Year presentation.

"Church bells chiming on a Sunday morn" will summon us for Holy Mass to be celebrated by High Court Chaplain Richard A. Jakubauskas.

"You're sure to fall in love with Old Cape Cod" reminds us to please contact High Secretary-Treasurer John F. Anderson, Jr. at Headquarters as soon as possible, if you plan on attending the Convention and Banquet and have not previously made your reservations. All are welcome to attend!!

Privacy Notice To Our Members

MEMBERS' PRIVACY

The Catholic Association of Foresters strongly believes in protecting the confidentiality and privacy of the information we receive from our members. This notice describes our privacy policy and how we treat the information we receive from you and from others about you.

OUR SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Much of the personal information we receive comes directly from you either orally or in writing. The information you supply when you apply for our insurance products generally provides us with sufficient information for insurance purposes. If we need to verify information or need additional information, we may obtain this information from third parties such as employers, consumer reporter agencies and health care providers. Information we request may relate to your employment, finances, health, avocations or other personal characteristics.

MANNER IN WHICH INFORMATION IS USED

We may use the information received for business purposes with respect to our insurance and fraternal relationship with you as a member of our Society. Business purposes include evaluating your request for insurance products, evaluating claims for benefits, administering our business operations and processing transactions for services you may request. We may also use this information to contact you to offer other products and services we furnish to members.

HOW WE PROTECT MEMBERS' INFORMATION

We treat all information we receive about you in a confidential manner. Our employees are required to protect the confidentiality of this information. Your personal information is available only to our employees who may need to see it to fulfill and service your needs. We maintain safeguards to protect the information and our employees are required to comply with our established policies. Should your relationship with us end, your personal information will remain protected in accordance with our privacy practices as outlined in this notice. We do not disclose your personal information to organizations not affiliated with us. We may disclose information about you in order for us to conduct our business, or where disclosure is required by law. For example, information may be disclosed to others to enable them to provide business services for us, such as performing general administrative activities. We may use your personal information for marketing purposes, or to help with your overall insurance program. Information may also be disclosed for audit research purposes, or to law enforcement and regulatory agencies.

FURTHER INFORMATION

A recently enacted federal law established new privacy standards that require us to provide this summary of our privacy policy once each year. For additional information regarding our privacy policy, please write to us at Catholic Association of Foresters, 182 Forbes Road, Suite 119, Braintree, Massachusetts, 02184-2693, or call us at 1-800-282-CAOF.
